

ISSUES IN LEADERSHIP – 1 DAY INTENSIVE

Overview

The one-day intensive version of this acclaimed three day programme is designed for participants to examine and enhance the effectiveness of their leadership. It creates an opportunity for participants to study how they can add further value to their organisations and to the productivity of those who look to them for leadership. It focuses on the requirements for strategic leadership in a volatile and relentlessly changing world.

Duration

One day

Outline

The following topics are covered on one-day version of the Issues in Leadership Programme:

1. Understanding the key issues of leadership
2. Self-understanding, self-awareness and behavioural preferences
3. Adding real value to the effectiveness, sustainability and resilience of the organisation
4. Managing key stakeholder relationships
5. Responding effectively to complex situations
6. Communication, perception-management and motivation

Approach

The programme is delivered through a team of experts in different areas of Leadership. All the topics above are covered as mini seminars, allowing for an in-depth, fresh and relevant review of the critical areas of leadership. Where time permits, cases, video-based studies, and other topical references are used on this programme.
